UNESCO dual pilgrim & vagabond storyteller Marcus Ryan has performed in 6 continents & 60+ countries. After a sellout season at the 2025 Melbourne International Comedy Festival, he toured East Africa, summited Mt. Kilimanjaro, ran a couple of half marathons for charity, and trekked to Mount Everest Base Camp in shorts and t-shirt.

What motivates someone to take a pilgrimage? Religion? Fitness? Find themselves? One thing for sure, if you're attempting the Camino, you'd better damn well know why!

"When I was a little kid I never understood why our dad made us walk everywhere, he loved it and I absolutely hated it. Then - in 2017 of my own free will - I walked over 1,000kms across Europe. While it nearly killed me, it also changed my life, and in many ways saved it. I now know get it."

'Eat, Pray, Walk' is a heartwarming, hilarious and inspiring journey of great proportions - and great portions of bread - tackling the physically and emotionally draining pilgrims route, Camino de Santiago Compostela. 40 days on blistered feet on a diet of tapas & sangria, encountering interesting and not so interesting characters from all walks of life, in search of answers, but mostly in search of a hot shower and free Wi-Fi. Faced with injuries and near death, angry dogs, snorers, bed bugs, getting lost in forests, delirious in deserts and caught in a political revolution, with only borrowed shoes, a broken backpack and sense of adventure, this is a tale you'll want to hear, but be glad you didn't live! ¡Buen Camino!
