UNESCO dual pilgrim & vagabond storyteller Marcus Ryan has performed on 6 continents in 60 countries. Fresh from an East African tour, summiting Mt. Kilimanjaro and a sellout season at the 2025 Melbourne International Comedy Festival, he makes his Geelong Comedy Festival debut.

What motivates someone to take a pilgrimage? Religion? Fitness? To find themselves? Or couldn't afford a bus?! If you're going to attempt walking the famous Camino trek, one thing for sure, you'd better damn well know why!

"When I was a kid I hated walking. Dad loved it and I never understood why. In 2017 - of my own free will - I chose to walk over 1,000kms across France & Spain. I now know why he loved it. That is the journey."

'Eat, Pray, Walk' is a heartwarming, hilarious and inspiring journey of great proportions - and great portions of bread - tackling the physically and emotionally draining pilgrims route, Camino de Santiago Compostela. 40 days on blistered feet on a diet of tapas & sangria, encountering interesting and not so interesting characters from all walks of life, in search of answers, but mostly in search of a hot shower and free Wi-Fi. Faced with injuries and near death, angry dogs, snorers, bed bugs, getting lost in forests, delirious in deserts and caught in a political revolution, with only borrowed shoes, a broken backpack and sense of adventure, this is a tale you'll want to hear, but be glad you didn't live! ¡Buen Camino!

"Incredibly funny. Will leave you inspired" - ★★★★★ Perth Happenings, 2020

"Charms the audience from the get-go. Terribly funny" ★★★★★ Edmonton Journal

"Heartwarming, engaging and a damn good story" ★★★★★ Upside, Adelaide
